Teacher Job Fair

Attention Education students:

You are cordially invited to attend the Northern Kentucky University Teacher Job Fair 2013.

THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 2013
STUDENT UNION BALLROOM (ROOM 107)
3-5 P.M.

Why attend the Teacher Job Fair
• Teacher education and school counselor positions for students.
• A way for schools and districts to meet large numbers of students and vice versa.
• A chance for students to network with school and district personnel by presenting themselves professionally and handing out their resumes.
• Opportunity for representatives to talk about their schools and districts.
• A great way for students to ask questions about careers and job opportunities with a school or district.

How to prepare for the Teacher Job Fair
• Job seekers should review the list of registered organizations prior to the fair and should research those of interest. For a directory of attending schools/districts, click HERE.
• Please dress professionally and bring copies of your resume and your NKU ALL CARD.
• Be sure to have your resume reviewed at the Career Services prior to the event.
• Career Services walk-in hours are Monday through Wednesday, 2:30 to 4 p.m. and Thursday from 4:30 to 5:45 p.m. in UC 225. Students unable to make walk-in hours may schedule an appointment for a resume review by calling 859-572-5680.
• Sample job search materials for teacher candidates, including tips for teacher job fairs and professional dress, are available at http://careerservices.nku.edu/students/teachercandidates.html

Students should also attend the Southwest Ohio/Northern Kentucky Education Career Fair for additional networking opportunities for teaching and school counselor positions.

This event is coordinated by the Career Services and the College of Education and Human Services.
