Company Information:
Steeped in tradition, Ashley is well known throughout Northern Kentucky/ Greater Cincinnati as a land developer and single family, multi-family and commercial builder. The company is located in Edgewood Kentucky and has recently celebrated 30 years in business. As industry and community leaders, Ashley Construction continues to develop and build high quality neighborhoods. Known for their residential and commercial real estate development and their strong property management divisions, the company in recent years has added a focus on urban redevelopment.

Field Laborer

Department: Residential Construction
Reports To: Field Superintendent
Rate: $13.00 to $13.50 /hr
Expected Schedule: Flexible 20 – 40 hrs/ wk
Availability: 8 - 5 Mon. – Fri. 8 – 12 Sat.

Job Description

A laborer works under general supervision of the site superintendent. They receive written and verbal instructions. They are expected to independently perform their work, determining applicable work methods and sequence, and completes assignments in compliance with construction building standards. They are responsible for observing safety rules, including OSHA. They will have the opportunity of working with a variety of subcontractor crews as well as working under multiple skilled superintendents with an average of over 29 years construction experience.

Come build with us.

Please send resume info to Mitchell Deaton, mitchelld@ashleybuilders.com